

Wine Talk: March 2009 Update

The newsletter of Terroir Wines

Terroir Wines' March update ...

Terroir Wines' second shipment has arrived, just in time, because we are on the move next week, heading to the Loire with lots of good addresses to visit.

But, because we're the world's smallest wine company, the chief packer, invoice generator, back labeller, and inventory manager will not be around - that's the downside of doing it all ourselves. So, if you'd like to order any wine soon, we need to get your order by early next week to be able to process it promptly. Otherwise, new orders will be processed early in May.

A reminder on the current specials ...

The In Fine Côtes du Ventoux Super Bargain Quaffing Pack, your mix of Caravinserrail In Fine 2007 whites and reds (e.g. 6 reds, 6 whites, 3 of each, or any other mix you choose) for $ 91.80. That's only $15.30 each.

The Chateau Unang Bargain Pack, which has 3 bottles of Chateau Unang Côtes du Ventoux 2007 white and 3 bottles of Côtes du Ventoux 2006 red, for $110.70.

And returning favourites ...

Sadly a little more expensive thanks to an unfriendly exchange rate and increased freight costs.

Chateau Unang 2007 rosé is back, just in time to farewell summer. It's now $24 a bottle, with a 10% discount for orders of 6 or more.

Chateau Unang La Source 2006 red is back. It's now $31 a bottle, with a 10% discount for orders of 6 or more.

And we now have the pricing for our new wines ...

Chateau Unang La Croix 2005	$ 50.00
Chateau Unang Carignan St Gabriel 2007	$ 24.00
St Jean du Barroux Oligocene Red 2004	$ 55.00
